

BDSM ON A BUDGET

Screwup
7:30-9:30PM
Friday, May 14th
Eros, 2051 Market Street
San Francisco

Being a pervert is a state of mind, and exploring s/m doesn't require breaking your piggy bank. (Unless of course, your piggy bank likes to be broken.) Join Screwup to explore the joys and perversions of BDSM on a budget. Bring your tricks, tips, pointers, sample DIY gear, and your friends. You're guaranteed to go home with some new ideas - and maybe even a door prize!

Screwup is for trannies, queers, and our friends. This event is open to all genders and will be held in the meeting space at Eros (please note the new location for Screwup!). Folks sometimes go out for coffee or food afterwards, so come prepared.

FREE! Donations (optional!) will be accepted for a charity to be determined that evening.
